AUTUMN & WINTER

2021

Beautiful Autumn textiles in deep tones of burgundy and blue.

High quality tablecloths in beautiful prints and colors have become the trademark of Chamois. We continue to use ancient hand printing processes that give our patterns personality and the artistic look of genuine handmade items.

I have always had a love for textiles, crafts and patterns. This is what fascinated me on my first travels to India and continues to do so. This past year I have not been able to travel to India as I normally do, but the memories and inspiration are still with me. I am grateful for the connections I have made there and the talented block printers and artisans I am fortunate to work with.

This year we deepen our current textile offering with new colors, sizes and shapes. We introduce more linen tablecloths in the extra long size as well as round linen tablecloths with the popular Paradise print. You will find new beautiful Christmas textiles in both linen and cotton to make the holiday season extra special. We also introduce several new styles and colors of throws in soft boiled wool.

I hope you will love the new products as much as I do.
