Spring & Summer 2022

New hand printed textiles in three new color palettes.

This spring and summer 2022 we introduce a new line of vibrant and colorful textiles. I wanted to create a fun and optimistic collection with bright colors that make me smile. The Indian Summer print has been revamped in new bold colors. This new collection speaks to a customer who is not afraid to play and have fun with colors.

I am also delighted to present a new line of textiles in genuine indigo blue. We love the outcome of combining our signature handprint technique with traditional indigo dyeing techniques. Together they create a beautiful and artistic expression, perfect for our Scandinavian aestethic.

We also extend our nostalgic Memories line with the new print Fiori in soft pastell colors. Both the Fiori and Margerita print now come in Fuchsia Rose, Sea Foam and Light Brown. Perfect for both afternoon tea parties and all the small coffee breaks during summer.

The elegant and exotic Pomegranate print has been extended with a new green and yellow color combination. Printed on luxurious white linen and cotton. And finally, we even have a little Easter surprise for you.

I hope you will love the new textiles as much as I do.

We love the unique, artistic look of hand print and indigo dye.

We are delighted to introduce a genuine hand mud block printed Indigo line of textiles. Each textile has been crafted by skilled artisans, who carve the designs into hardwood timber blocks. The blocks are then used to stamp each print onto the fabric with mud. After stamping the fabric is dipped into indigo dye. It is a skill demanding long experience.

Due to the nature of indigo dye, all indigo products can and will bleed even when dry. We have taken great care to minimize the bleeding. Make sure that you always wash indigo products separately.

The distinct blue tone of Indigo have been sought after for thousands of years.

Indigo pigment have been used to dye fabric since ancient times. The color and pigment became popular in the west by the wide use of denim and blue jeans.

We are proud to preserve this ancient craft and bring it into modern homes.

Most of Chamois textiles are handprinted using the ancient woodblock printing technique. We develop our prints in collaboration with local artisans and family run businesses. The whole process is made by hand from cutting of the woodblocks and blending the colors to printing each textile. The process is gentle on the environment, use very little water and electricity.

This genuine handmade process makes every textile unique. Slight variations in color and print is the beauty of a genuine hand woodblock printed product.

In a world increasingly filled with faced paced consumer products, we are proud to preserve this ancient handicraft and bring it into modern homes worldwide.
